D. ADJOURNMENT

Meeting agendas and supporting documentation are available from the City Clerk's office, and on line at www.cityofbrooksville.us. Persons with disabilities needing assistance to participate in any proceedings should contact the City Clerk's office 48 hours in advance of the meeting at 352/540-3853.

Any person desiring to appeal any decision with respect to any matter considered at this meeting, may need a record of the proceedings including the testimony and evidence upon which the appeal is to be based, and therefore must make arrangements for a court reporter to ensure that a verbatim record of the proceedings is made.

City of Brooksville
Proclamation

Whereas, City of Brooksville first responders include law enforcement officers, firefighters, emergency medical personnel, paramedics and EMT's who bravely and selflessly risk their lives every day to protect City of Brooksville families, visitors and businesses; and

Whereas, the City of Brooksville first responders do not hesitate to risk their own lives in order to save the lives of others, and their commitment to continued training, skill enhancement, and inter-agency coordination make them vital members of our community; and,

Whereas, Acts of kindness and appreciation from citizens for first responders provide them needed encouragement and support to confront the dangerous and uncertain situations they face every day; and,

Whereas, the Greater Hernando County Chamber of Commerce, in partnership with Oak Hill Hospital, is honoring all City of Brooksville first responders on Friday, September 11, 2015 during the 15th Annual Hernando County Residents Reception at Weeki Wachee Springs State Park; and

Whereas, it is appropriate to recognize the value and the accomplishments of local first responders and emergency service personnel including emergency physicians, emergency nurses, emergency medical technician, paramedics, firefighters, law enforcement officers and the many individuals, volunteers and otherwise, that provide services to the City of Brooksville and its citizens; and

Whereas the City of Brooksville calls upon all citizens to take time out of their day to show first responders and their families how much we value their service to our city. This event is an opportunity to demonstrate appreciation for all men and women who protect and serve our city as first responders, and an opportunity for residents of the City of Brooksville to say "thank you" to the first responders who keep them safe.

Now Therefore, We the Undersigned as City Council for and on Behalf of the City of Brooksville, do hereby proclaim September 11th, 2015 as in an effort to recognize and celebrate our city's first responders on behalf of the Greater Hernando County Chamber of Commerce in the City of Brooksville, Florida.

In Witness Whereof, we have hereunto set our hands and caused the seal of the City of Brooksville to be affixed this 9th day of September, 2015.
